Mike Watt on the McNally Smith College of Music and other things.

SCHOOL OF PUNK ROCK

FOLLOWING A DECEMBER 14 SEMINAR BY PUNK legend Mike Watt, St. Paul, Minnesota's McNally Smith College of Music (formerly MusicTech, www.musictech.edu) inaugurated the Mike Watt bass scholarship. Starting this fall, the scholarship will be awarded annually to an incoming bass major. Watt first made his mark with the groundbreaking punk band the Minutemen, before touring and recording with Fog. He recently toured with the punk band Iggy & the Stooges and released a solo record, The Secondman's Middle Stand (Red Ink/Columbia).

...an a bass player," said the hip-hop/rock cat who stroked into the music scene and ran the handsome Long Trail folk-rock band (13,300 list, $2,475 street). He picked it up and noticed that its two pickup transducers—were unbridgeable and strayed in the neck—added richness to the sound. He began dreaming of chambered basswood bodies, maple necks, and hilding in Vermont. ...has it he eventually moved there. Based on a true story; check out the DeMars website.
